Creative Director with 13 years leading brand and product teams of up to 25 across 8 markets. I started in illustration, calligraphy and typography, and I lead by growing people. Designers become art directors, art directors become leads, and the team works inside a system that gets the work out before the deadline. I have hired 50+ people, for integrity first and the will to learn second. I also prototype in code with AI, from brief to a live staging build in days. Open to Creative Director and Head of Design roles in Europe, on-site or remote.

Available in 30 days · Can start remotely from day one (contractor or EOR) · Visa sponsorship needed for on-site roles in the UK and EU
